

Concerning RM-10867, the ARRL petition for expanding no code license privileges into the HF band. I agree with all features of the petition except with removing the General class code requirement.

This should remain as code is important for both emergency communication as well as international relations. International communication can be held using code without either side having a conversational level in each other's language.